

12.01.24 Religious Buildings. Can I talk about and compare religious buildings?

What do you notice about these special places? Look at the shape, size and colour? What is similar? What is different? How might you feel walking into one of these buildings?

That one is pretty and it is so beautiful.

It would look the same as the church inside.

can I explain what the sikh holy book is and how it is used?

They tuck it in.

(covers the path)

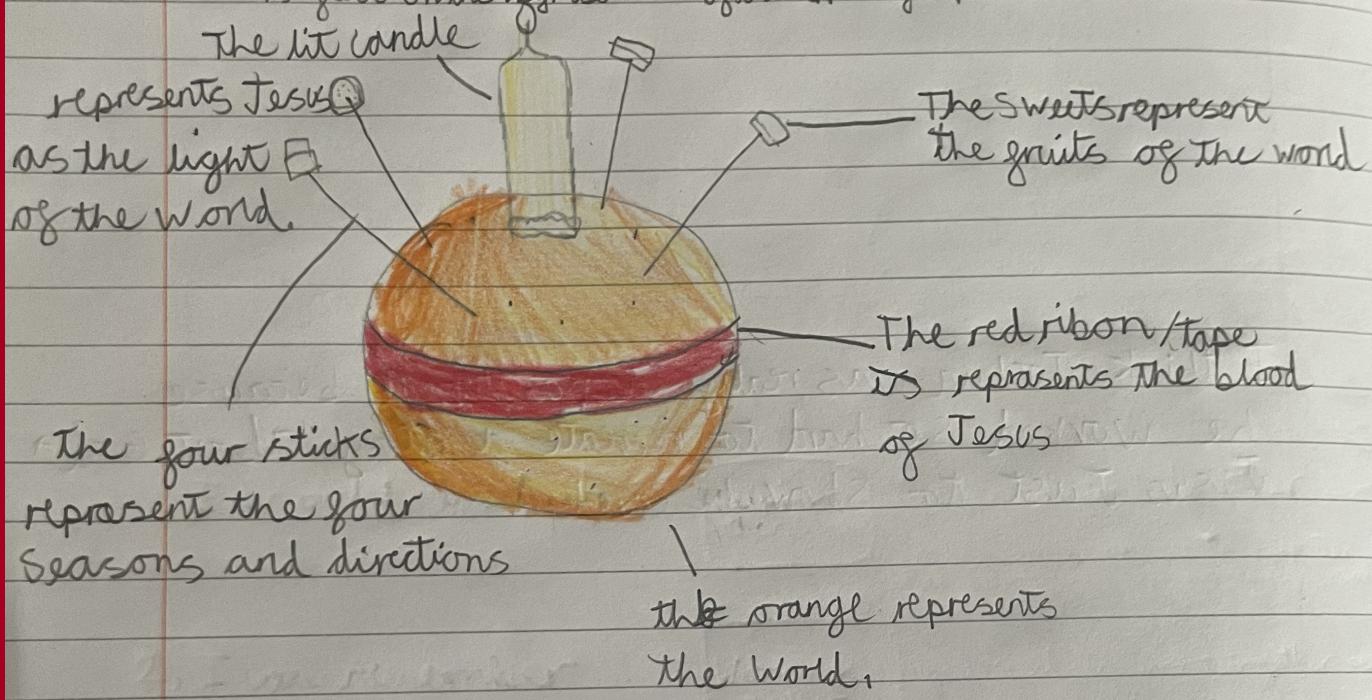

give it a room to rest in

Can I reflect on the symbolism of the Christingle?

The four sticks
represent the four Seasons and directions

The sweets represent the fruits of the world

The red ribbon/tape
represents the blood of Jesus

~~the~~ orange represents the world.

I think the most important part of the Christingle is the candle because Jesus is the light of the world.

What did the Buddha teach about the four noble truths?

① Dukka

All human life involves suffering.

This does not mean humans

are never happy, even things that humans are made happy by will eventually end-

② Samudaya

The root of suffering is craving, this is the idea of humans always wanting things; we are never satisfied. This leads to suffering as in an impermanent world we can't have everything we desire, need or want.

Nirvana

We can escape suffering if we learn to be contented and stop

craving. This state is known as Nirvana.

③ Magga

We can end suffering by following what the

Choose an event in your life when you have suffered in some way (physically or emotionally).

Use the Four Noble Truths to break it down:

1. How were you suffering?

2. What thing caused your suffering?

3 / 4. What did you do (or could have done) to stop or lessen the suffering?
